

KJTI Booking Form

Due to limited spaces, bookings are accepted on a first-come-first-served basis, and are subject to the booking conditions over-leaf and must be accompanied by a cheque for £200 per person made payable to 'KJTI.' The prices listed are for four persons sharing a jeep but for a small extra cost the number can be restricted to two or three only. KJTI can also expedite a Pakistan Visa from the High Commission and recommend an ATOL agent to reserve your flights. Please fill in appropriately for this service.

You can use this form for up to two persons with the same address. Please complete both sides in BLOCK CAPITALS with the information available and return to KJTI with your deposit.

Booking Conditions

Karakorum Jeep Treks International referred to as KJTI accepts bookings subject to the following conditions and in conjunction with the conditions detailed in the latest 'Dates & Prices': 1) A non-refundable deposit of £200 must be paid at the time of the booking and is accepted by KJTI in part payment of the tour price. 2) The balance of the tour price is due 10 weeks before Day 1 of the Trek. If the full payment is not received within two weeks of its due date in the year of travel, KJTI may deem the booking to be cancelled and the deposit forfeited. 3) Cancellation of a booking must be notified in writing and when received by KJTI the deposit is forfeited. In addition, cancellation charges will be levied to cover expenses and losses according to the following scale: Less than 8 weeks notice – 50% of tour price; Less than 4 weeks notice – 75% of tour price; Less than 2 weeks notice, or after departure – 100% of tour price. Clients are therefore recommended to arrange travel insurance immediately on booking as this will provide cover for these charges in the event of cancellation for the reasons specified on the insurance. A request by a client to alter a booking to another tour may be treated, at the entire discretion of KJTI, either as cancellation and re-booking or as a transfer to another tour. In the latter case, no moneys will be refunded and if the booking is subsequently cancelled by the client, charge will be levied in accordance with this clause by reference to the original departure date. 4) KJTI guarantees not to increase its tour prices after confirmation of a booking. 5) If a client fails to join a tour or joins it after departure or leaves it before the end, no refund will be made. No refund will be made in respect of any part of the tour, including food, excursions, etc. that is not used or undertaken. Clients are solely responsible for organising their arrival at and departure from the assembly points and no arrangements apply if clients are delayed at the outward or homebound points of departure. 6) KJTI reserves the right to cancel any tour at any time prior to departure in which case all moneys will be refunded in full but KJTI will not be liable for any other expenses incurred by the client. All tours operate subject to minimum number. Except in the case of exceptional circumstances beyond its control, KJTI will not cancel less than 4 weeks prior to departure. 7) The client undertakes: a) to comply with the laws and regulations, whether in respect of health, immigration, exchange control or any other matter, of all countries visited in the course of a tour; b) to comply with all reasonable instructions of the tour leader (jeep driver); c) to obtain a valid passport and visas appropriate for the countries and territories to be visited; d) to obtain personal travel insurance for the duration of the tour including minimum cover of £1,000,000 for medical and repatriation expenses; in the event of any breach in these undertakings, or if in his/her reasonable opinion the actions or health of any client is likely to prejudice the safety or well being of all or any members of the tour, or the satisfactory progress of the tour, the tour leader shall be entitled to require that the client leave the tour immediately. In such an event the provisions of clauses 5 and 13 shall have effect. 8) KJTI reserves the right to deviate from the published route without prior notice or to make other changes to the advertised details of the tour including schedules, excursions, accommodation and amenities due to events which affect the ability of the tour to proceed as planned. The events may include, but are not limited to, changes to flight schedules, flight delays, sickness or injury of clients or crew, hazards of travelling in mountainous terrain, high altitude, underdeveloped areas, the forces of nature, civil unrest, local disturbances, hostilities, border difficulties, unavoidable mechanical breakdown, excessive and/or unreasonable local price charges, adverse weather conditions and other unpredictable or unforeseen circumstances. In all such cases KJTI shall not be liable for any compensation of clients. 9) If a client has a problem or complaint during a tour he / she should inform the tour leader or relevant supplier who will endeavour to resolve matters, if any complaint cannot be resolved locally, the client should write to KJTI with full details within 28 days of completion of the tour. 10) Neither KJTI nor its employees, agents, staff or other clients shall be liable for damage, loss or personal injury whether or not caused or contributed to by the actions or omissions of KJTI, its employees, agents, staff or other clients. 11) Without the prejudice to the generality of the preceding clause, the client acknowledges that the tours operated by KJTI involve travel of an adventurous and possibly hazardous nature, and further that the tour vehicles may not have the benefit of passenger insurance. The client therefore agrees to indemnify KJTI, its employees, agents, staff and other clients against any claim or demand made against them: a) by the client, his/her personal representative or dependents in respect of any accident, personal injury or loss of life suffered by the client during the course of the tour whether caused by negligence of any party therein concerned or otherwise. b) in respect of any accident, personal injury, loss of life or damage to property caused by the client during the course of the tour. Clients are therefore advised that they should ensure that they are satisfied that they are adequately covered by personal insurance in respect of all such risks. 12) KJTI shall not be liable for any loss or damage to baggage, personal possessions, passports and other documents or any consequential loss resulting there from and its staff are not authorized to accept responsibility for their safekeeping 13) In the event of the client voluntarily leaving the tour before completion hereof or being so required to leave by the tour leader on any of the grounds set out in clause 7, all liability and responsibility that KJTI may bear to the client will immediately cease. 14) In accordance with the 1992 Package Travel Regulations, all moneys paid to KJTI will be held in a separate account as security against insolvency until completion of the tour to which they relate.
